Queries:

1) Jonathan Palmer, Ulster County Archivist, requested a list of the events which occurred in Lloyd during the Revolutionary War (for Rev 250). I created a list and sent it to him.

2) Cathy Rought requested scans of four early photographs from the Town Historian's collection. I sent her high-resolution scans which I created on my own scanner.

3) Vals Osborne requested photographs of the Town of Lloyd for a forthcoming book on Historic Houses and Landscapes of Ulster County. We met with Vivian Wadlin and scanned over 20 postcards which are now on the town computer. I gave her scans of some additional photographs I found in the Historian's collection.

4) Kyle Williams has yet to present his proposal on the restoration of the Civil War Soldier's monument to the Town Board, but I located a photo showing the original sword and the missing eagle. It is in the Town Hall meeting room.

5) Joe Aiello and his cousin, Margaret Skinner, descendants of the owners of the tomato factory visited on Sep. 15. Anthony Prizzi joined the meeting (thanks to Chief Janso). His relatives were also part of the early operation of the tomato factory and they were excited to renew their connections. I found several articles for them.

6) Richard Johnson request scans of the 1930 Hasbrouck assessment maps – specifically related to a parcel he inherited in Lewisburg. I photographed two pages and sent them to him.

7) Chris Freeman purchased 40 Perkinsville Rd and requested some help in tracing back the previous owners. I had that information from a previous project.

Collections

1) One of the “Indian” baskets from the Historian’s Collections is on loan to Historic Huguenot Street for their current exhibit. I posted more information on the bulletin board.
